Academic Calendar

Vice President of Student Development, Carol Cullum distributed the Academic Calendar for 2005-06 for review by the Council. Any questions/concerns regarding this calendar need to be given to Mrs. Cullum by Monday, January 31, 2005 at 2:00 pm. If changes are required, Council will meet on Tuesday, February 1 at 2:00 pm to review changes. Otherwise, the calendar will stand approved as presented.

Satisfactory Progress Standards

Each student is expected to make satisfactory progress toward obtaining the degree or diploma he/she has declared. The minimum cumulative GPA for remaining in good standing is a 2.00. These standards include Academic Warning, Academic Probation, and Academic Suspension. Mrs. Cullum reviewed the changes in the wording for the catalog. Council approved the Standards.

NCCCS Student Leadership Institute

President McKeithan distributed packets on nominating students for the NCCC Student Leadership Institute. The deadline for nominations/applications is February 17 with applicants notified of acceptance by March 22, 2005. More detailed information can be obtained from the member of Council in your area.

2005 Local Bond Proposal

Given the College’s need to make optimal use of the property being acquired from the City and the strong financial advantages that accrue to local students, the local economy, and the strong payback to local and state governments for investments in CFCC, the Planning Committee of the CFCC Board of Trustees will recommend that the Board of Trustees seek approval of the New Hanover County Commission for a bond referendum.
Announcements

Philpott - CFCC is working with Pender County to explore and identify students for the Early College Program.

Oakley - The One Book, One Community program will be held at CFCC in February.

Seeger - Corning’s fire brigade which is trained by CFCC is listed as Wilmington’s best trained fire brigade.
