CED CLASSES:

The Compensatory Education Program is designed for adults who have been diagnosed as developmentally disabled or who have been medically pronounced as functioning at a level equivalent to mental retardation resulting from head injury or brain damage. Instruction is designed to help individuals with reading, life skills, money management, community living, health habits, problem solving, and vocational skills. The goal of this program is to help individuals acquire skills and abilities needed to become more independent and self-directed and to meet and manage community, social, work, and personal adult responsibilities.
