APPLICATION FOR DETERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY FOR MILITARY TUITION BENEFIT

Under North Carolina General Statutes Section 116-143.3, certain members of the armed services and their dependent relative(s) may become eligible to be charged less than the out-of-state tuition rate even if they do not qualify as residents for tuition purposes under G.S. 116-143.3. The application law and implementing College regulations are available for inspection at the Admissions Office in Student Development. Included among the requirements are that, at the time of enrollment in the academic program, the member of the armed services be on active duty and stationed in NC on permanent change of station orders. Active duty members of the armed services include those serving in the United States Air Force, Army, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, and Navy; the N.C. National Guard; and any Reserve Units of these military units. Military reservists (other than those of the N.C. National Guard) must be on active duty to qualify for the in-state tuition benefit. In order for a dependent relative of the service member to be considered eligible for this benefit, the dependent relative must live with, and claim the benefit through, the service member. Applicants for this benefit must also qualify academically for admissions to Cape Fear Community College.

- Service members who are determined to be eligible for this benefit must RE-APPLY for it (1) if they do not remain continuously enrolled, (2) if they enroll in a different program, or (3) if they are discharged from the service.

- Dependents of service members who are determined to be eligible for this benefit must RE-APPLY for it (1) if they do not remain continuously enrolled, (2) if they enroll in a different program, (3) if the service member is discharged from the service or (4) if they cease to be a dependent of the service member.
