PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Cape Fear Community College celebrates National Student Employment Week to honor student employees and their supervisors for their contributions to the College; and

WHEREAS, student employees make meaningful contributions to the mission of North Carolina colleges and universities; and

WHEREAS, students acquire work-based learning experiences that enhance and complement their academic learning and prepares them for the world of work after graduation; and

WHEREAS, contributions of student employees greatly enhance the work and services of their institutions on many levels, whether working in the library or in an academic office or assisting with research projects; and

WHEREAS, colleges and universities across the country take this week to say a special "Thank You" to the thousands of student employees who not only succeed in their academic endeavors, but also manage employment at the same time; and

WHEREAS, Cape Fear Community College recognizes National Student Employment Week from April 12-18, 2009.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Saffo, Mayor of the City of Wilmington, do hereby proclaim the week of April 12-18, 2009 as
