

FTE Compliance Review

About Us

The FTE Compliance Review Department serves an independent accountability function of Cape Fear Community College. Full-time Equivalent (FTE) enrollment statistics are reported to the North Carolina Community College System and are used to determine the college's operating budget. The department conducts a variety of professional reviews and assessments to ensure that all college programs and reporting procedures are in compliance with the North Carolina Community College System's guidelines and with the North Carolina State Board of Community Colleges Code.

FTE Compliance Review services include the following:

- Coordinating and developing program monitoring plans
- Conducting ongoing FTE internal audits and reporting
- Investigating suspected fraud and abuse
- Recommending corrective action plans
- Providing education and training on internal control, risks, and best practices
- Providing technical assistance regarding compliance application and program quality
- Serve as a liaison between the community college and external compliance examiners
