Once you have selected a video, to add the video to your course site you will need to copy the URL link.

Don't just give students a File Name! It helps them (and the librarians) if you also include the video title.

You will need to add the Ezproxy URL to the video bookmark URL.

At the beginning of the video's URL add the

Ezproxy URL: <http://ezproxy.cfcc.edu/login?url=>
