NADE Membership Requirement: Individuals who join or renew their membership with conference registration are eligible to use Categories A-D. Only persons who have current membership in NADE (expiring on or after February 28, 2009) are eligible to use Categories E-H. Registrants who select Categories E-H but whose membership cannot be verified as current (expiration of 2/28/2009 or later) will be required to either (1) pay non-member fees shown in Category I or (2) join NADE and pay membership dues before their registration can be processed.

Presenters: Presenters are required to register for the conference using one of the categories from A – J. Presenters are not eligible to register as Visitors (Category K). Note that if pre-conference institute presenters will not be attending the conference after Wednesday, they are not required to register for the conference.

Visitors to the Conference: Visitors to the conference must register using the "visitor" category (Category K). As visitors, they will be permitted free admission to continental breakfasts, the exhibit area, and general sessions (non-food). They may also purchase tickets for optional food events. The "visitor" category is not applicable to presenters, moderators, or anyone planning to attend a concurrent session; these individuals must register in another category.

Guests: Guests of conference attendees are not permitted access to conference events, with the following exception: if a guest wishes to attend the Opening Reception, the Cultural Heritage Event, the President's Breakfast, or any other ticketed meal event, a registered attendee must purchase a "guest" ticket for the guest. Anyone planning to attend any other conference function or activity must register for the conference.

Graduate and Undergraduate Students: Full-time students may pay a reduced fee to attend the conference. NADE encourages students to get involved with developmental education early in their professional careers. To qualify for the reduced rate, students must submit a letter from the registrar or the dean of the college stipulating the student is enrolled full-time in an education program. This letter must accompany the conference registration form. Graduate students who are teaching full-time must pay the regular registration fees.

Adjunct Instructors: Adjunct instructors are encouraged to attend the NADE conference. To qualify for the reduced rate, adjunct instructors must submit a letter from their academic dean stating that they are adjunct instructors. This letter must be submitted with the NADE conference registration form. Adjunct instructors who are teaching for more than one university or who are working full-time at one university and teaching part-time at another university must pay the regular registration fee.
