

Declaration and Certification of Finances

In order to be eligible for an F-1 student visa, applicants to Cape Fear Community College must show evidence that they have enough money to pay all of their school and living expenses for their duration of intended program of study. CFCC will not issue an I-20 form without satisfactory evidence of financial support from the applicant or from the parent(s) or sponsor(s) of the applicant.

Instructions:

1. This form must be completed by the person who will be paying for the school and living expenses of the applicant to Cape Fear Community College
2. If more than one sponsor will be providing financial support for the applicant, a separate form must be completed by each sponsor
3. In addition to this form, the applicant's sponsor(s) must provide evidence that the required amount of funds are available for, at the very least, the first year of study. Such evidence may be one or more of the following original documents (no photocopies accepted) and must be less than 5 months old:
 - a. Bank statement of funds on deposit in the name of the sponsor
 - b. Bank-issued letter that states the sponsor has the financial capability of sponsoring the applicant, specifying that the current balance meets or exceeds the estimated cost of attendance
