

Rights and Responsibilities as a Financial Aid Recipient

- Information you provide to the Financial Aid Office will be treated confidentially.
- You will be considered for every federal financial aid program for which you may be eligible and for which there are available funds.
- You have the right to certain consumer information which can be found either in the CFCC catalog and/or on individual CFCC office web sites.
- You may request a reevaluation of your financial aid eligibility if your circumstances change during the academic year.
- You may be required to confirm the accuracy of the information provided on the FAFSA. Information found to be incorrect may serve as the basis for increase, decrease or cancelation of aid. Information found to be knowingly falsified may result in disciplinary action or referral to the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Inspector General.
- You must use financial aid funds only for expenses related to your enrollment at CFCC.
- You must report to us any additional financial aid (scholarships, grants, loans, and other educational and tuition assistance) received.
- You must meet CFCC's standards of satisfactory academic progress to maintain financial aid eligibility.
- You must meet all general eligibility requirements to receive federal and state financial aid.
- If you decide not to attend CFCC after registering for classes, s/he MUST complete paperwork for an official drop BEFORE the first day of the semester. Failure to do so will result in the student's being charged for tuition and fees. All financial aid will be removed. **