

ATI PN Comprehensive Predictor Test

Applicants who meet the minimum application requirements will be prompted to schedule the ATI PN Comprehensive Predictor test following the successful completion of their “Intent to Apply”. Instructions on how to schedule this test will be included in the e-mail to those students whose Intent to Apply meets eligibility requirements. Potential applicants to the LPN to RN Program may take the exam ONCE per application period.

How to Prepare:

There is no specific review guide for this exam; however, the Nursing Department recommends preparation through the use of LPN course books and NCLEX-PN study guides. Be sure to look for NCLEX prep books that are for the current year NCLEX PN test plan and include "next gen items".

More information regarding the next gen items can be found @ <https://www.nclex.com/next-generation-nclex.page>
