

WILSON COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Title IX Seminar

Join us, as guest speaker Sarah L. Ford leads the discussion on Title IX training. This event promises to be a major learning opportunity for all who are involved with this federal civil rights law.

Tuesday, May 24 • 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Wilson Community College • Room E-102

902 Herring Avenue, Wilson, N.C. 27893

Registration Fee: $140.00 (Lunch included in registration)

Sarah Ford

Partner with Parker Poe
Attorneys and Counselors at Law
based in Raleigh N.C.
Expert - Title IX

Sarah Ford is an attorney based in Raleigh, North Carolina who provides Title IX training and other legal services to colleges and universities.

Sarah is in high demand as a Title IX trainer, having provided training programs on campuses, both large and small, for administrators, faculty, and staff.

The sessions will be geared toward those who have just assumed the role of Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, or Adjudicator. The seminar will also benefit those who have been in these roles for sometime but need additional training.

- Topics*
- Implementing Your Title IX Priorities
 - Investigating Reports of Sexual Misconduct
 - Title IX and Pregnancy Accommodation
 - Adjudicating Cases of Sexual Misconduct

See reverse for agenda details!

Deadline to register is May 20th!

For registration information contact:

Margie Norfleet (252) 246-1210 mnorfleet@wilsoncc.edu